What will we be doing?

The weekend away is a vital part of our Church life together and takes place every other year. 2015's weekend was an unqualified success. It is a great opportunity for all the church family to get to know one another better as we learn, worship and have fun together. The programme for the weekend will be finalised by the Rector and the leadership team and the speaker is confirming his availability this autumn.

The timetable includes:

Friday	Booking in, Dinner and Introduction to the Weekend
Saturday morning	Talks & Worship
Saturday afternoon	Free time-local attractions/sports/games/relaxing etc.
Saturday evening	Social activity including a cabaret & entertainment
Sunday morning	Talk and the Lord's Supper
Sunday afternoon	Depart after lunch

During the Weekend there will be an organised programme for children's activities.

The Hayes Centre is set in beautiful Derbyshire countryside with easy road and rail links. It lies 5 miles from Junction 28 of the M1. It offers a flexible range of facilities including indoor and outdoor play and sports areas and beautiful gardens. Local attractions include Chatsworth House, the Midland Railway Centre, Crich Tramway Village and picturesque Derbyshire towns (and tea rooms). Free Wifi is available.
